Social Emotional Learning

Before Reading:

- Read the title aloud, along with the author and illustrator. Ask for a prediction on what the book will be about, after showing the cover.
- Do a picture walk by flipping through the pages looking at the illustrations. Let the child make observations. You do not have to read text, unless you want to draw attention to any special features.
- Do you ever worry about unknown things? How do you feel when you worry?

During Reading:

- Have any of Wemberly's worries/fears been true?

After Reading:

- Why did Mrs. Peachum introduce Wemberly to Jewel?
- What made Wemberly forget her worries?

Putting into Practice:

- Why do we worry about things? Is it normal?
- Should we worry about everything? What can we do if we worry a lot?
- Are our worries usually useful or true?
